

Wafers with Hazelnut Filling

I think this is an ideal recipe for all of you who are not keen on wafers. As soon as you taste them, you will love them.

INGREDIENTS :

700 g of fried hazelnuts ( ground )

400 ml of milk

250 g of margarine for cakes

180 g of sugar

250 g of baking chocolate

3 spoons of rum

1 package of wafers ( 38 x 28 )

PREPARATION :

1 . Put the milk, margarine, sugar, chocolate and rum into a smaller pot and let the ingredients boil, while stirring them periodically ...

2 . add the fried hazelnuts into cooked milk, mix everything well and let the filling cool down...

4 . divide the filling into four equal parts, coat each wafer abundantly and evenly ...

5 . cover the coated wafers with transparent foil and put some weight on them, for example books ...

6 . leave the wafers on a cool place overnight and cut them the following day ...

NOTES AND ADVICE :

Cut the wafers into bigger cubes.

Always cut the wafers with a sharp knife.
